

The Pain & Policy Studies Group (PPSG) would like to inform you of a recent Spanish-language report which provides information about the availability of opioid analgesics in the world and for countries in the region of Latin America. Titled "Descripción De La Disponibilidad De Opioides in América Latina," it was prepared for presentation at the 3rd Congress of the Latin American Association of Palliative Care in Isla Margarita, Venezuela. The report can be accessed on the PPSG website at <http://www.medsch.wisc.edu/painpolicy/publicat/monograp/venezuela06.pdf>.
